CUAC'S EVP SPEAKS AT THE AUTO FINANCE SUMMIT IN LAS VEGAS

Kurt Howard, Executive Vice President of Credit Union Acceptance Co. LLC, was a speaker at the 2017 Auto Finance Summit in Las Vegas, NV. Kurt discussed the role of smaller auto finance companies and their distinct advantages during AFS's "Small Lenders & Credit Unions Workshop." Kurt discussed the opportunities for maximizing loans while mitigating risk, advertising, and how collaboration and technology are crucial and remain vital for small lenders.

Kurt's background spans more than 26 years in the credit and collections industry, primarily in automobile lending. Throughout his years in the industry, he has played an integral role in the development and implementation of policies and procedures in the areas of credit & financial analysis, credit scoring, loan origination & servicing. For nearly two decades, Kurt has served as the Executive Vice President of Credit Union Acceptance Corporation (CUAC). As the lead role for the indirect automobile lending services of a multi-owned Credit Union Service Organization (CUSO), Kurt has been instrumental in the development of the lending systems and infrastructure which funds nearly $1.6 billion in indirect automobile loans annually for 200 Credit Unions nationally.

Credit Union Acceptance Company, LLC (CUAC) is a division of Credit Union Alliance, LLC. It was created in 1998 by Credit Unions to help Credit Unions retain member loans, grow auto loan portfolios and increase membership by enabling them to provide point-of-sale finance at the dealership. CUAC offers a full line of point-of-sale lending services and the flexibility to design a program that meets Credit Union needs. CUAC works with our clients every step of the way to construct the perfect program for them. For more information, visit www.cuac.com.
