CU ALLIANCE 2015 FOOD DRIVE SUCCESS STORY

Houston, TX | December 2015. CU Alliance, LLC (CUA) and its employees collected and delivered more than 8,000 food items for the 2015 Food Drive benefiting Cy-Hope. Each year, the food drive is conducted along with a friendly competition between three CUSOs; CU Companies, a CUSO based in Minnesota, against two other CUSOs who joined forces, CU Community of Tennessee, and CU Alliance, in Texas, to see who can collect the most donations. At the end, it was the combined efforts of CU Alliance and CU Community that came out on top, beating CU Companies by 3,143 food items.

"I am proud of the CU Alliance family, their fervor and willingness to help was inspiring. Great job, everybody. CU Companies, get ready for next year," said Adrian Dominguez, CU Alliance, President & CEO.

Cy-Hope is a Houston area organization whose mission is to help every school in the Cy-Fair ISD to earn exemplary status by making life better for kids in the community. Visit www.cy-hope.org for more information.

CU Alliance, LLC is a Credit Union Service Organization (CUSO) formed in 1998. CUA partners with nearly 200 credit unions and several CUSOs in nine states. CUA's range of products helps our partners leverage their resources. From assistance to full service turnkey operations, CUA has proven to be the partner of choice for credit unions across the nation. Visit www.CUAcuso.com for more information.

CU Community is a wholly owned subsidiary of ORNL Federal Credit Union, a $1.7 billion credit union in Oak Ridge, TN. CU Community was formed in 2006 to help deliver secondary marketing experience to credit unions throughout Tennessee and currently serves over 20 credit unions in its footprint. Currently, CU Community and its parent, ORNL Credit Union, service over $1 billion in first mortgages. www.cucommunityonline.com.

CU Companies was created in 1987 by three Minnesota credit unions looking to create economies of scale and offer a competitive mortgage product to their members. Their corporate office is located in New Brighton, MN. CU Companies is now owned by 66 credit unions and services over 150 credit unions and banks throughout the nation. Since 1987, its expanded business to five total units: Mortgage, Title, Realty, Investments and Commercial Lending. www.cucompanies.com
